

Case Study Help and Case Solution

CaseStudy.Help

Case Study Help and Case Solution

CaseStudy.Help

Recap

Answer the following questions:

1. Identify what the public want from their fictional shows? (eg. Action)
2. Identify (3) negatives of dramatizing true stories and putting them into films/ TV.
3. Identify (3) positives of dramatizing true stories and putting them into films/ TV.

Casestudy.help

Casestudy.

Casestudy.help

P6

Review current case studies of media portrayal of the public services, including one factual and one fictional case study.

M4

Same as above but Analysis

The line that separates FACT and FICTION is becoming more blurred especially within the film industry

Task:

Identify some films/ TV programmes that are giving an unrealistic

The line that separates FACT and FICTION is becoming more blurred especially within the film industry

Task:

Identify some films/ TV programmes that are giving an unrealistic representation of the services

Casestudy.help

Potential 'current' case studies:

Media portrayal of:

- Current relations with North Korea
- Current relations with Russia
- Upcoming General election, Specifically focus on a party Labour for example are having a tough time from the media at the moment.
- What else can you think of?

Not current but still can be used due to recent media coverage:

- Madeline McCann
- Rhys Jones "Little Boy Blue"
- Jean Charles da Silva e de Menezes (Brazilian man shot in tube station)

Current TV shows that you can create a case study about the portrayal of the a service or services are:

- CSI
- Hot Fuzz
- Little boy Blue (based on true story but some of the events have been dramatized for entertainment)
- Holby City
- Casualty
- What else can you think of?

*P6 is easy as all you need to do is review 1 factual
and 1 fictional case study*

Casestudy.help

Casestudy.help

Task:

Pick 1 of the following and identify how you are going to "Analysis" the media portrayal....

Think:

Media effect theories - Are they used?

Impact on the services Good and bad

(Recruitment, public perception, demotivation of servicemen & women, etc.....)